

ANNOUNCING EXCITING CHANGES IN THE WORLD AFFAIRS COMMUNITY!

We are very pleased to announce some exciting news about your local World Affairs Council and World Community Institute. During the 2006-07 year, these two community-based organizations are, at long last, combining forces! Many of you have belonged to or attended programs sponsored by one or both groups over the years, and so you may be familiar with the commonalities and synchronicity between these groups. We are very happy to work collaboratively to bring to the Quad Cities another outstanding year of programs, as outlined in our 2006-07 World Affairs/World Community (WAC/WCI) Calendar. Our combined programming will afford you the opportunity to meet new people with common interests in world affairs issues, while enjoying the same high quality programs as in past years.

Your support has enabled us to present excellent programming over the years, a tradition that will continue with our WAC/WCI collaboration. We would like to take this opportunity to invite you to become an individual or corporate supporter of the World Affairs Council of the Quad Cities. While "membership" is open to anyone, our supporters may be recognized as such in our future mailings and programs. To become a supporter, simply complete and mail a Support Form (elsewhere in this notification/site) and either mail or email it to us at the address provided on the form. Your support will help underwrite the 2006-07 programming and to enhance our new collaborative efforts well into the future.

We look forward to hearing from you and seeing you at some of our upcoming combined programs for 2006-07. Please contact us should you wish to play a more active role in the World Affairs Council, as new energy is always welcome on our planning group and board.

Peace and Best Wishes,
Your World Affairs Council Board:

Ted Pfeiff, Lisa Killinger, Totoo Pinto, Kenneth Pinto, Jon Stauff,
Robert Libey, Zobeida Laufenberg, JoAnn Milani and Justin Hutchison
